Cascade Games services range for designing and managing Organized Play (OP) experiences for publishers to assisting with the design and development of games. Since 2000, Cascade Games LLC has sanctioned over 10,000 tournaments.

What do we do?

Cascade Games works with awesome conventions, like KublaCon, to bring official FFG Organized Play to players all over the United States, Mexico and Canada. We bring all the latest prize support from FFG to you, the players, so that you can compete for all the best rewards.

Where can you find us?

All official FFG Organized Play will be at the Crowne Plaza hotel just at the end of Old Bayshore Road. You can take the FREE shuttle from the Hyatt to the Crowne Plaza and back again all weekend along! Our events are in the following rooms at the Crowne Plaza: X-Wing in the Plaza Ballroom, Destiny in the Bayside Room and L5R Kotei is in the Peninsula Ballroom.

What do we offer?

All FFG Organized Play events are paid for either in advance or onsite at the Cascade Games HQ located at the Plaza Ballroom. These event fees give you access to the best in Organized Play and have exclusive rewards for participation and winning events. We offer Hangar Bay and Elite Hangar Bay events for X-Wing; Escape Pods for Destiny; and Proving Grounds for L5R.

How do you sign up?

If you already have your 4-day pass or one day pass for KublaCon, you can visit us at the Cascade Games HQ at the Crowne Plaza hotel. If you do not have a convention wristband you may either purchase one at the Hyatt before coming over or purchase one at the Crowne Plaza KublaCon Registration desk. All event fees onsite are handled by Cascade Games at HQ in the Plaza Ballroom.

What prizes are available at KublaCon?

In the System Open, each participant receives a double-sided upgrade card that features the Millennium Falcon on one side and Slave I on the other. Participants also receive a copy of The Force Awakens™ Core Set damage deck, themed with a custom Boba Fett card back. In addition, participants also gain the option to acquire a Mandalore-themed, tournament-legal 2018 System Open Series game mat. All players who advance to Stage 2 receive one pair of commemorative acrylic target lock tokens, plus two double-sided Aurebesh ship cards featuring full-bleed art for the Resistance Sympathizer and Mandalorian Mercenary. Stage 2 participants also receive one plastic, spot-glossed version of the double-sided, full-bleed Resistance Sympathizer and Mandalorian Mercenary.

Each Galactic Qualifier features a Prize Station loaded with exclusive, custom Destiny prizes—all of which can be yours if you earn the Prize Credits to claim them. You receive Prize Credits for competing in events. Each of your victories earns you even more Prize Credits, and a perfect performance in a “Galactic Qualifier” tournament secures an invitation to the World Championship!

In L5R’s Toshi Ranbo Season clan’s competitors can contribute and influence their Clan Standings in three ways:

Favor Points are won and lost by Hatamotos for their clan during each round of Day 1. Kotei events are the battlegrounds where Hatamotos are made, with exclusive prizes and benefits. Occasionally, special awards of Favor Points are also conferred for displays of incredible clan dedication. The Emperor’s Favor determines which clan will host his Winter Court, and they are represented on many of the prizes at the World Championship.
